Case Family
John Case I to Seth Case
Five Generations

John Case I [1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)

b. 1616, d. 21 February 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore, daughter of John Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

John Case II [1,2,3] (M)

b. 5 November 1662, d. 22 May 1733
Pedigree

John Case was born on 5 November 1662 at Windsor, Hartford Co., CT.[4,5] He was the son of John Case and Sarah Spencer. John Case married Mary Olcott, daughter of Thomas Olcott Jr. and Mary (?), on 12 September 1684 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.[6] John Case married Sarah Holcombe, daughter of Joshua Holcombe and Ruth Sherwood, in 1693. John Case died on 22 May 1733 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT, at age 70.[5]

John moved with his family to Simsbury when he was seven years old. With the exception of one year spent in Windsor during the King Philip War, John lived all his life in Simsbury and died there. He is buried in the Simsbury cemetery next to his mother. He lived and worked on his fahter's farm at Weatogue until he married at age 22. (Charles Case, p. 116)

John's wife Mary and their son John both died in 1685, presumably at childbirth.

For a numbr of years after the death of Mary and John, he remained single farming his property on Bissell Brook and living on his home lot nearby, acquiring additional lands.

Two years after his mother died, John married Sarah, and within a span of ten years, John and Sarah had six children.

Children are listed in Goodwin and Savage's Genealogical Dictionary.

1. I, John Case, Sen., of Simsbury, do make this my last will and testament: I give to my well-beloved wife Sarah 1-3 part of my now dwelling house and barn, with 1-3 part of my improveable land during her natural life, and also 1-3 part of my moveable estate forever. I give to my son John a certain piece of land lying on the east side of the river in Simsbury, being 12 acres that his barn now stands upon, sd. land lying westward of Buttolph's house, north of the highway, bounded northerly side on Josh. Holcomb's land. I give to my son Daniel the pasture lott that his house stands upon, with 4 rods south of his dwelling house and so running west 1 1-2 rods, south of the south corner of sd. Daniel's land, straight through the lott to the west end, and also the 2 1-2-acre lott that bounds south upon sd. pasture and north upon Samuel Adams's land. I give to my son Jonathan my homelott that I now dwell upon, with all the buildings thereon. The remaining part of all my lands I give unto my sons John, Daniel and Jonathan, to be equally divided between them, except that I give to my son John œ10 more than an equal part. I give to the heirs of my daughter Mary, 10 shillings to her son and 5 shillings to each of her daughters, besides what I have already given her in her lifetime. I give to my daughter Sarah so much in moveable estate as to make up œ60 as money with what I have already given her, with this promise, that my wife Sarah quits all her claim in the law that she has or may have unto lands that descended to her from her Father Holcomb equally to my sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan; but, if not, I give unto my sd. daughter 10 shillings. Also I give unto my daughter Hannah œ60 in moveable estate with what she has already received, in the whole œ60 as money. I appoint my three sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan, executors. Witness: Andrew Robe, Esther Higley, Timothy Woodbridge.

John Case I [1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)

b. 1616, d. 21 February 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore, daughter of John Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

Hi Richard,
Hope your trip back home was a good one - you escaped our 90+ heat! Thanks again for inviting us to your memorial celebration Saturday. Seth Case would have been SO Proud, as is all of his descendants. I have been searching historical newspaper databases for Delaware news & thought I'd send along these Case articles in the hopes that some may be your folks.

Coshocton Daily Tribune, Coshocton OH 8 May 1916 – Hamilton, OH May 8 – Intense surprise was caused at Oxford when it became known that Rev Lawrence E Grennan was secretly married at Delaware Ohio to Miss Emma Case, who had been his pupil when he taught at Delaware 50 years ago. Mr Grennan was for more than 40 years a teacher in the Oxford schools, resigning because of advanced age two years ago. His wife died three years ago. He is a minister of the M E Church. It is announced that he will remove to Delaware. [In the 1860C, Liberty township, Lawrence Grennan was a 20 year old teacher in the common schools. Emma Case, daughter of Seth and Mary Case, was eleven & also living in Liberty township at that time]

11 Mar 1880 - Cambridge Jeffersonian – Cambridge OH – Miss Nellie CASE, a very interesting young lady of about seventeen years of age, who was a member of Rev DARROW'S family here from the time they came to Cambridge until within a few weeks, she went home to her mother in Sunbury, Delaware County, very sick of consumption, died Thursday morning, March 4th. Her remains were deposited in the vault at that place Friday. Her memory will long be cherished by many warm friends here.

2 Jun 1882 - Marion Daily Star – Marion OH – We are handed the following obituary of Jason CASE (who died at Circleville O May 24th, 1882) taken from the Democrat & Watchman of that city. He edited the first paper ever started in Marion and it may therefore be of interest to many of our readers.

Jason CASE, Esq, one of our bet known and oldest citizens, identified with the history of Circleville for nearly 50 years, departed this life last Wednesday forenoon May 24th at his residence on Mill St. He had been feeble for a year or more and worse a few days preceding his death.

The deceased was born in Delaware Ohio in October 1808 & was in his 74th year. In May 1824, he was indentured to Ezra GRISWOLD, of Delaware, to learn the printing business & served with him three years. In 1827, in partnership with Elder Jacob DRAKE, he started a paper called The People's Press at Delaware, and in 1828, in company with Leonard H COWLES, then quite a prominent lawyer, he started the first paper ever printed in Marion Ohio, also called The People's Press. [The article goes on to tell about the numerous papers he has been associated with, including the fact that he went to Circleville in 1834 when he partnered with William B THRALL at the Circleville Herald. Also mentions the many official positions he held there] The deceased was married near Delaware Ohio July 27, 1826 when not quite eighteen years old, to Marietta ROBISON, who died on the 28 Oct 1881, having celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary the 28th of July 1876. They were the parents of twelve children, seven now living, viz: Minerva McEWING, wife of Samuel of Frankfort KY; William M CASE, in the West; Russell B CASE, Mary CASE, and Elizabeth McCRADY, wife of Lewis, of this city; Melissa HEFFNER, wife of James W, and Jason M CASE, of Frankfort KY. The funeral will take place this Friday afternoon at 3:00.

21 Aug 1891 - Democratic Standard – Coshocton OH – Last Sunday, Panhandle Train No. 6 bore the silent form of Mrs Harriett MILLER CASE, from Lewis Center to this station, where it was met by a large sympathetic concourse & followed to the M E Church where appropriate services were conducted by Rev ABERTHY of Lewis Center. Mrs CASE was born at this place Sept 10, 1861, and by her request was buried among the scene of her early childhood. She united in matrimony with Ellis CASE, of Delaware County, in 1880; the result of this union, three children were born. She was an active member of the M E Church & departed this life in full confidence of gaining a home at the right hand of the Master. Mrs Case died August 27, 1891, aged 30y 11d. She leaves a husband, three children, and many friends to mourn their loss.

15 August, 1895 - Columbus Dispatch - Columbus, OH – Horrible Affair Near Delaware County Line – House Burned Down and a Human Life Sacrificed – Particulars of the Affair – A gentleman who resides in Delaware County a mile or two from Lewis Center, arrived in the city during the day & brought with him particulars of a horrible fatality which occurred in that vicinity about 9 o'clock in the morning. The affair occurred on the farm of George ELSBREE, located on the Columbus and Delaware Pike just north of the Franklin county line. It appears that Mrs CASE, mother of Mrs Elsbree, lives with the family. She is 96 years of age and quite feeble in health. During the morning, the old lady complained of feeling cold, the early morning air being quite chilly, and Mrs Elsbree accordingly built a fire in the fireplace for her benefit.

Mrs Elsbree then went about her morning duties & was absent from the house for some little time. When she returned, she was horrified to find that the room occupied by the old lady was full of fire and smoke. She was unable to get the unfortunate woman out, being alone, and the fire having made great headway before it was discovered. In the excitement over the peril of the old lady, little was, or in fact, could be could be done to save the dwelling which was wholly consumed. Mrs Case perished in the flames. The destruction of the house entailed a loss of two or three thousand dollars. The property being in Delaware County, the coroner of that county was summoned to inquire into the cause of the death of Mrs Case. It is not know how the fire originated – whether the old lady was the innocent cause of it, or whether fire fell from the fireplace upon the boards and ignited the floor.

John Case, 1616 - 1703

John Case was born in Aylesham, England circa 1616 and died 21 Feb 1703 (or 1704 or 1705) in Simsbury, CT. The Case family is one of the ancient and honorable families of New England. They were noted as far back as Oliver Cromwell (1599-1659) and accumulated a fortune furnishing leather for the Army, being tanners and farriers. The records show they came from York, England to Aylesham, England in the year 1200. They held all the land around Aylesham so the town was said to be Cased in and were a clan by themselves. Many of them still reside there. Their land surrounded possessions of Anna Boleyn, who became the second wife of Henry VIII of England, and was beheaded "for treason" in 1536. The Cases were closely related by intermarriage to the Boleyns.

John arrived in New England on the ship "Dorsett" on September 3, 1635 from Gravesend, England, at the age of 19 years. The ship landed around Long Island. He then moved to Dorchester, MA [1]. In 1637 John married Sarah Spencer (1636-1691), daughter of William and Agnes (Tucker) Spencer of Hartford, CT. They next moved to Hartford, then moved to Maspeth Kills, NY (now Newton according to our Genealogy). John and Sarah resided in Windsor CT from 1656 until 1669, when they removed to Simsbury and settled in the area known as "Weatogue" [3].

In 1667 John, with twenty others, received the first grant of land in Simsbury which was at Meadow Plain, Massaco (Simsbury). He lived about one mile south of the Pettibone Tavern, the second house south. He was a shoemaker and harness maker as well as a farmer. He was appointed constable for Massaco by the General Court Oct. 14, 1669, and represented his town at the General Court in 1670 and several times afterwards. He with six sons would go from Weatogue to what now (1900) is West Simsbury and cultivate the land there. Hence it was first called Case's Farms, afterwards Farms Village, then West Simsbury. They carried their guns with them as a protection from the Indians as well as to shoot game which was very plentiful there.

The first of 5 children to John and Sarah were born in Windsor, the last 5 were born in Simsbury:

1. Elizabeth born 1658 in Windsor; died 9 Oct 1718; married (1) Joseph Lewis; married (2) John Tuller
2. Mary born 22 Jun 1660 in Windsor; died 22 Aug 1725; married (1) 1677/9 William Alderman who died 1697; married (2) 30 Mar 1698/9 James Hilliard who died 28 July 1720, age 76
3. John Jr. born 5 Nov 1662 in Windsor; died 22 May 1733; married (1) 12 Sep 1684 Mary Alcott; married (2) 1693 Sarah Holcomb
4. William James born 5 Jun 1665 in Windsor; died 31 Mar 1700 in Simsbury; married Elizabeth Holcomb
5. Samuel born 1667 in Windsor; died Jul 30 1725; married (1) Mary Westover; married (2) Elizabeth Thrall
6. Richard born 27 Apr/Aug 1669 in Simsbury; died 27 Apr 1746; married Amy Reed
7. Bartholomew 1 Oct 1670 in Simsbury; died 25 Oct 1725 in Simsbury; married 7 Dec 1699 in Simsbury Mary Humphrey, daughter of Samuel and Mary (Mills) Humphrey, born 16 Nov 1681 in Simsbury
8. Joseph born 6 Apr 1674 in Simsbury; died 11 Aug 1748; married Anna Eno
9. Sarah born 20 Apr 1676 in Simsbury; died 2 May 1704; married 9 Nov 1699, as his second wife, Joseph Phelps Jr., son of Joseph and Hanna (Newton) Phelps, born 27 Aug 1667; died 20 Jan 1750
10. Abigail born 4 May 1682 in Simsbury; married 1 Sept. 1701 Simsbury Jonah Westover Jr.

Sarah died on 3 Nov 1691 in Simsbury, at the age of 55 [2]. Her headstone in Simsbury Cemetery is said to be the oldest in Simsbury. John married (2) Elizabeth (Moore) Loomis (our genealogy says Louise (Moore) Loomis) (1638-1728), daughter of John Moore and the widow of Nathaniel Loomis of Windsor, CT. Elizabeth died in Windsor 23 July 1728 at the age of 90. She and John had no issue.

John died in 1703 in Meadow Plains or the southern part of Simsbury. His place of burial is unknown but it is supposed to be by the side of his wife Sarah in Simsbury Cemetery, although no stone was erected. He had an estate of 562 pounds, making him a man of wealth at that time. John's will, dated 21 Nov 1700 named his wife Elizabeth, six sons, and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford (Sarah's brother), and John Case Jr. (John's son) were executors of the estate.

JOHN CASE

John Case was born in Aylesham, England. His date of birth is unknown but estimated to be about 1616 by his descendants. Originally John settled in Windsor and lived there until 1669 when he "removed" to the "Weatogue" area of Simsbury. He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William and Agnes Spencer of Hartford, CT prior to 1658 and they had 10 children. Five of them were born in Windsor and five in Simsbury. Sarah died in 1691 at the age of 55 and John remarried Elizabeth Moore Loomis, widow of Nathaniel Loomis, with whom he had no issue.

The General Court appointed John Constable for Massacoh Oct. 14, 1669. He represented Simsbury at the General Court in 1670 and several times afterwards.

John Case[1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)
b. 1616, d. 21 Feb 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

John Case[1,2,3,4,5,6] (M)
b. 1616, d. 21 Feb 1703/4

John Case was born in 1616 at Aylesham, England.[7] He married Sarah Spencer, daughter of William Spencer and Agnes Harris, circa 1657. John Case married Elizabeth Moore. John Case died on 21 February 1703/4 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.

He left a will on 21 November 1700.

"It is interesting to speculate about who John Case was on the basis of what we know. Although there is no age recorded anywhere for John, it is likely that he was not much older than Sarah, who was born in Boston in 1635, and that he was a resident of Hartford during the time prior to his marriage. It also seems probable that he came from a good family for it is unlikely that he would have had the opportunity to know Sarah, much less marry her, if he himself did not have a comparable background. Most parents in early New England were very careful about their daughters associations and it was generally necessary for a young man to secure the permission of a girl's parents prior to courting her. This concept was firmly embodied in New england law, which made it a crime punishable by a fine for a young man to see a girl without first obtaining her parents' consent. It is also apparent that John had traveled widely in southern New England and had either lived at or visited both Maspeth Kills, near Brooklyn on Long Island, and Hartford, Connecticut, by 1656." - Charles Case

He resided in Windsor until spring of 1669, when he settled at Weatogue (Simsbury). His house in Windsor, (probably build by a former owner) was on the corner of Mill highway and Bloomfield Ave; lot ext. on ave. about 33 rods an d14 on Mill road. His lot "whereon his house standeth" had not been recorded before 1669. "It was first gn. to Benj. Newberry, now Captain, and hath been possessed by several men before." He sold his house and lot and shop to Nath. Cook, 1689. He was the first constable of Massacoe (now Simsbury) CT, in 1669 and represented the town several times at General Court.

John's will named his wife, Elizabeth, six sons and four daughters. Samuel Spencer of Hartford and John Case, his son, were executors.

The Alderman Genealogy is more specific about John's early years: "John sailed from Gravesend, England, on September 3, 1635, on the ship Dorset and landed at Newport, R.I., but settled in Windsor, Conn. He was a farmer and owner of large acreages of land. He spend some years in Newton on Long Island, but in 1656 he returned to Connecticut and 1667 settled in Simsbury, formerly known as Masaco."

John Case[1,2,3] (M)
b. 05 Nov 1662, d. 22 May 1733

John Case was born on 5 November 1662 at Windsor, Hartford Co., CT.[4] He was the son of John Case and Sarah Spencer. John Case married Mary Olcott on 12 September 1684 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT.[5] John Case married Sarah Holcombe, daughter of Joshua Holcombe and Ruth Sherwood, in 1693. John Case died on 22 May 1733 at Simsbury, Hartford Co., CT, at age 70.

John moved with his family to Simsbury when he was seven years old. With the exception of one year spent in Windsor during the King Philip War, John lived all his life in Simsbury and died there. He is buried in the Simsbury cemetery next to his mother. He lived and worked on his fahter's farm at Weatogue until he married at age 22. (Charles Case, p. 116)

John's wife Mary and their son John both died in 1685, presumably at childbirth.

For a numbr of years after the death of Mary and John, he remained single farming his property on Bissell Brook and living on his home lot nearby, acquiring additional lands.

Two years after his mother died, John married Sarah, and within a span of ten years, John and Sarah had six children.

Children are listed in Goodwin and Savage's Genealogical Dictionary.

1. I, John Case, Sen., of Simsbury, do make this my last will and testament: I give to my well-beloved wife Sarah 1-3 part of my now dwelling house and barn, with 1-3 part of my improveable land during her natural life, and also 1-3 part of my moveable estate forever. I give to my son John a certain piece of land lying on the east side of the river in Simsbury, being 12 acres that his barn now stands upon, sd. land lying westward of Buttolph's house, north of the highway, bounded northerly side on Josh. Holcomb's land. I give to my son Daniel the pasture lott that his house stands upon, with 4 rods south of his dwelling house and so running west 1 1-2 rods, south of the south corner of sd. Daniel's land, straight through the lott to the west end, and also the 2 1-2-acre lott that bounds south upon sd. pasture and north upon Samuel Adams's land. I give to my son Jonathan my homelott that I now dwell upon, with all the buildings thereon. The remaining part of all my lands I give unto my sons John, Daniel and Jonathan, to be equally divided between them, except that I give to my son John œ10 more than an equal part. I give to the heirs of my daughter Mary, 10 shillings to her son and 5 shillings to each of her daughters, besides what I have already given her in her lifetime. I give to my daughter Sarah so much in moveable estate as to make up œ60 as money with what I have already given her, with this promise, that my wife Sarah quits all her claim in the law that she has or may have unto lands that descended to her from her Father Holcomb equally to my sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan; but, if not, I give unto my sd. daughter 10 shillings. Also I give unto my daughter Hannah œ60 in moveable estate with what she has already received, in the whole œ60 as money. I appoint my three sons, John, Daniel and Jonathan, executors.

Witness: Andrew Robe, Esther Higley, Timothy Woodbridge.

Cases in Simsbury

John Case, the immigrant ancestor of this line of Cases was born in England, probably Aylesham in Norfolk in 1616 - the year that William Shakespeare died. He arrived in New England in 1635, settled first in Hartford,Conn. and then moved to New Town Long Island for several years. He returned to Windsor, Conn. in 1656 and married there. He was one of the original company of twenty with grants of land on the Farmington River. The settlement was then known as Massacoe, now Simsbury,Conn. John was appointed Constable by the General Court in Hartford in1669, the first office holder in the town. Being Constable meant that he had the responsibility for maintaining peace in the community,of enforcing orders from higher colonial officials, and for conducting town meetings. He represented the town in the General Assembley from 1670-75, and again in 1691.

He became a large landowner and farmer. His will showed that he owned 17 parcels of land, a corn mill and a saw mill. An inventory of his personal possessions was three pages long and enumerated among other things, pewter articles, linsey cloth, tobacco, guns, a Bible and other divinity books.

Town records prove that he had two brothers in New Ton Long Island, Thomas and William Case. He probably had two more brothers in Conn. Richard and Henry Case.
